- 1. About 11 December 1948 the Czechoslovak Government instructed its Charge d'Affaires in Tehran, Ivo Spoutil, to undertake negotiations with the Iranian Foreign Office regarding a civil air agreement.
- 2. As of 11 January 1949, Spoutil had yet not complied, because he had been awaiting a more opportune time, informant states. However, the new Czech Charge d'Affaires in Tehran, Richard Slansky, who arrived there on 5 January, will probably discuss this matter with the Iranian Foreign Office in the near future, according to informant.
- 3. Spoutil, who is also accredited to Iraq, was instructed to offer a similar air agreement simulteneously to the Iraqi Government, but he had likewise postponed this action.
